Driving Under the Influence Offense Leads to Prison Sentence

Schuyler, Colfax County, Nebraska: On October 25, 2021, the Schuyler Police Department in cooperation with the Colfax County Sheriff arrested 31-year-old Mainor Escobar Marroquin of Schuyler for the offenses of 5th Offense Driving Under the Influence of Alcohol (over .15), Driving under 15-year Revocation, Violation of Ignition Interlock Device, and Possession of an Open Alcohol Container. Mr. Escobar Marroquin was contacted as the driver involved in a single-vehicle accident. His blood/alcohol test result was .250.

On Wednesday, November 8, 2023, Mr. Escobar Marroquin appeared in the District Court for Colfax County and was sentenced for the offense of 4th Offense Driving Under the Influence of Alcohol (over .15).

He received a sentence of 4 to 8 years at the Nebraska Department of Correctional Services.

Colfax County Attorney Bruce Prenda said “Driving under the influence of alcohol presents a public safety threat in our communities. It is particularly concerning that the behavior is recurring, and the intoxication levels are trending higher.”
